Cheryl Humes with very Special guest Michael Lewis

Cheryl Tennant Humes Ms. Humes attended Westminster Choir College, studying with the late Harold Zabrack and later completed her degree at Bloomsburg University where she studied with Dr. James Douthit. She was tutored in opera repertoire by an accompanist/vocal coach of the Long Island Opera, James Howe. Ms. Humes particularly enjoys accompanying vocal and instrumental soloists and participating in other musical collaborations. Highlights of her musical endeavors include performing the music of friend and composer Dr. Paul Miller at Carnegie Hall; serving as pianist and accompanist for two contemporary opera productions in Europe, notably in Bonn's renowned Kunsthalle and in Prague; and occasionally accompanying master classes and lessons conducted by legendary opera star Licia Albanese under the auspices of Opera International, as well as for students in the studios of Diana Reed Warden and Josepha Gayer. Currently, Ms. Humes is an attorney practicing civil law in Pennsylvania, including advocacy as guardian ad litem for over 150 children.*

Michael Lewis is currently engaged as Assistant Music Director and Chorus Master for Tri-Cities Opera and Vocal Coach and Staff Accompanist at Binghamton University and of Binghamton, NY. He earned his undergraduate degree in Vocal Performance from Ithaca College in May 2013. He has had coaching experience with the International Vocal Arts Institute, Mill City Summer Opera, Cooperative program and Ithaca College School of Music. While at Ithaca College, Michael assisted in the creation of the first student-run opera company at the college, Ithaca College Light Opera, in which he served as assistant music director and vocal coach. He went on to lead the group in their second season as music director. The opera company continues to perform one one-act opera each semester. As a vocalist, he has performed a variety of roles in Ithaca College's main stage productions. Most recently, he had the opportunity to play the title role in Gianni Schicchi in 2013. This production was paired with Suor Angelica, for which Michael served as opera chorus master. For the past 7 years, Michael has been actively developing his style as a composer. His current works, which focus on vocal, piano, and electronic music, have been performed at the International Vocal Arts Institute, Ithaca College, and San Francisco Conservatory.*

Concert "Dave Fry" Folksinger Saturday July 12th 2014
7:00pm Tickets $10 Adults $6 Children 12yrs & under

A folksinger: adult, children's and family-music performer —arts educator/entrepreneur and good-time rascal, all rolled up in one! "Best Folk Performer" — Lehigh Valley Music Awards 2009 (12/2/09) Dave Fry's work has appeared on PBS-TV nationally, winning best Children's Programming in PA in 1991 with his RockRoots program. His Play Guitar with Dave Fry, an introduction to acoustic guitar was released on PBS-TV in 2005 and has been broadcast on over 150 stations. His I Like Peanut Butter CD won Best Re-release from the Children's Music Web in 1999. Dave has been associated with Young Audiences of New Jersey and Eastern PA for many years, and has been named Master Artist by the state of New Jersey and Teaching Artist by the state of Connecticut, as well. Dave also founded and was Artistic Director of Godfrey Daniels, nationally recognized folk club for 25 years.

Dave's concerts feature both traditional and contemporary folk music, spliced together with guitar, mandolin, banjo, wry and spontaneous commentary on American family life, and plenty of participation on everyone's part. Dave Fry is unique in his ability to entertain all ages, and builds a sense of community everywhere he performs.

Dave has been a featured performer at the Philadelphia Folk Festival, Falcon Ridge Folk and Winterhawk Bluegrass festivals, all of Bethlehem's Musikfests, and has toured Mexico and Germany, as well. He has even played the White House lawn. He continues to perform at folk clubs, schools, festivals, preschools and elder-care facilities, and delights in sharing live and lively music.

Concert "JUSTUS" Classic Rock
Saturday, July 19th 2014 7:00-9:00pm
$10 in advance-$15 @ the door

Band members are:

LeRoy "Buddy" Musselman- Lead/backup Vocals & Lead/Rhythm Guitar- Born in 1965 to a musical family, Buddy started playing guitar in 1971 and performed live for the first time at the age of 12. Eight years of guitar lessons/music theory and two years of vocal lessons prepared him for a wide variety of musical projects. Buddy started his professional career playing bass guitar in the Robert Hoppes Orchestra, Country Band and banjo in the Northeast Pennsylvania String Band before making the transition to rock. Over the last 3 1/2 decades, Buddy performed in several local bands such as, Holeshoot, Midnite Rain, Missing Lynx, Ground Zero, Firkin, 3AM, Bwahaha and filled in with several accomplished Bluegrass bands. Buddy is currently the guitar/bass teacher at the Tamaqua Community Arts Center where he passes on the gift to young aspiring musicians and his philosophy that music is an extension of a musician's life and emotions. Music is a universal language, rejoice and be glad in it. May it comfort your soul...

Jack Kulp – Lead/Backup Vocals & Blues Harp – Jack’s musical career began in 1964 (before classic rock was classic) as a lead vocalist and blues harp player in Williamsport, Pa. where he played for several rock bands before moving to Pottsville in 1974. He says “The only reason I originally took up the blues harp was because I was the only guy in the band with free hands!” With few somewhat brief exceptions, he has been performing ever since, most notably with Pinch, Essence, Ma Rutts, The Recaps, Ffogg, Kulprit, Coal Hole Soul, The Meat, Wildcat, 3AM, Bwahaha and the Sterling Koch Trio. His musical philosophy is summed up as follows:
“Playing is an obsession for me. There is only one feeling that surpasses making good music with good friends. I just can’t remember what it is! You can take the man out of the music, but you can never take the music out of the man.”

Doug Betz - Bass Guitar - In 1981 or so, he bought his first bass—a Zapp—from Cunningham Guitar Company. After some time learning how to make loud noises with it he joined Forum. The summer of 1983 was the last time he played in a band for 30 years. In the late winter of 2012 he picked the four-stringed bass guitar up again and, with the help of a couple of really good teachers, one of whom is band mate Buddy Musselman, gained back what he forgot and picked up some new skills. Doug joined “Bwahaha” in May of 2013 and was their bass player until the band disbanded in October of 2013. Doug brings a love of The Who, Led Zeppelin, Neil Young, and The Clash to the band along with movie star good looks. He is the eye candy for the ladies. He looks forward to playing for you in the near future!

Billy Frye is the Drummer of the band. He was born in 1975 and always loved playing the drums. He was in multiple bands before, including “Guilty Conscience”, “Never Satisfied” & “Bwahaha” playing classic rock music. When his last band disbanded in October 2013, he took a break, was then asked to join Justus with 4 great musicians. He looks forward to performing for you!

Concert “Blackwater” Celtic Irish Traditional-- Coming October
18th 7PM “Blackwater steals the stage!”----The Coast Star
Newspaper

Sean and Fionna’s extended family. Rivers flow through our land like the storie A dynamic blend of traditional Celtic instrumentation, modern rhythms, and a strong vocal presence form the essence of Blackwater. On their own, each is an accomplished performer.....but together, these five friends and musicians create a unique style that is “purely original....unmistakably Celtic....and trad with a twist.”

For 18 years, Sean, Alison, Fionna, Tom and Al have been pleasing fans with high energy talent from their home base in the Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania region. Formed in 1996, the band has released three albums, appeared on many compilation recording projects, performed everywhere from intimate pubs to colleges and universities and main festival stages, and brought their inspired love of their shared music heritage to an ever-growing fan base. The band’s members have a rich tradition in Celtic, folk, classical and contemporary music and have successfully merged those individual influences into a unique and dynamic sound.

Striking vocal harmonies, intricate fiddle styles, multi-instrumental talent, and a penchant for compelling rhythms lend the group its tradition-based sound. Original compositions, innovative arrangements, and an all-embracing passion for fun freshen the mix for a show that has been described as “sheer celi aerobics”. “Energetic stage presence, wicked fiddle skills and lilting vocals!” are the words of another reviewer.

The Blackwater is a river that flows through County Waterford, Ireland, home to s that flow through our music, and we look forward to taking you along for the ride!
