AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY HAS A NEW HOME IN HAZLETON

Cancer Patients Now Have Access to Resource Center in Hazleton

Cancer Treatment Center at Hazleton welcomes the American Cancer Society Resource Center to their new home. The Resource Center is open to the community on Mondays and Thursdays, 10AM to 4PM located inside the Cancer Treatment Center at Hazleton. The center is manned by ACS staff and trained volunteers to give everyone the opportunity to find out more about the American Cancer Society, what it has to offer, and ways in which local patients and their family and friends can be helped. A large literature rack with American Cancer Society and cancer information is available in English and Spanish. If you can't visit the Resource Center on a Monday or a Thursday, call 570-459-1212 and other arrangements will be made.

The Cancer Treatment Center at Hazleton provides the greater Hazleton area and all of Luzerne County with quality radiation therapy technology in a warm, comfortable setting close to home.
