NEW Curious about early Tamaqua entrepreneur/economist Friedrich List?

Professor Eugen Wendler, a German professor, who has just completed his 14th book on Friedrich List (currently being translated into English) will visit the Tamaqua Public Library on Tuesday, September 23 and will give a very brief lecture here at 11 am. What a great opportunity to learn more about our local history! Don't miss it!

Born in Germany in 1789, List spent time in Reading as editor of a German language newspaper; while there, he and his business partner, Isaac Hiester, became significant landowners in Schuylkill County, including a coal field in the area of Tamaqua, and was reputed to perform the land survey of Tamaqua and Port Clinton, terminal points for the Little Schuylkill Navigation, Railroad and Coal Company, in which he was an investor. This year is the 225th anniversary of his birth. The place of List's birth – Reutlingen, Germany – is Reading's sister city, and this visit to Tamaqua is being coordinated by former Reading mayor, Tom McMahon and Tamaqua's Eric Zizelmann. Professor Wendler will be in Reading from September 20 to 24, for a book signing and lecture and he asked to visit Tamaqua so he could see the area where Friedrich List worked.
