PRESS RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TAMAQUA CHAMBER OFFERS INFORMATIONAL PROGRAM ON EMBEZZLEMENT PREVENTION

Everyday there are newspaper stories about how some dishonest employee or an officer of a youth sports organization or a non-profit organization has managed to divert funds into his or her own pocket. It is a subject that every business owner or organization should give serious thought to learning how to prevent it.

That's what the Tamaqua Chamber hopes to do at a Breakfast program, sponsored by Schuylkill County District Attorney Christine Holman, and Rich Shupp, of President of Cloud Service Center, with locations in Tamaqua and Emmaus. The program will begin with Rich Shupp, a Certified QuickBooks Pro Advisor, demonstrating how to locate discrepancies in QuickBooks that can be used to misappropriate funds.

PA. State Trooper Bernard J. Walasavage will discuss the preliminary investigation and the use of subpoenas and search warrants to assist with gathering all types of records and evidence and obtaining the initial interviews to move the case forward. In addition, Trooper Walasavage will discuss the aspects of obtaining a forensic audit. Trooper Walasavage has been employed by the PA State Police for 25 years and has been assigned to the Schuylkill Haven criminal investigation unit for last 10 years, and has also served as an alternate forensic services unit member.

Finally, Schuylkill County District Attorney Christine Holman will discuss how to prevent fraud in sports organizations and non-profit organization along with how embezzlement cases are prosecuted. Attorney Christine Holman is a Schuylkill County resident and a graduate of North Schuylkill High School and Penn State University. In 1991, she received her Juris Doctor from the Thomas M. Cooley Law School in Lansing, Michigan. Her career includes clerking for many well-known Schuylkill County judges, and as the lead prosecutor for the Juvenile Division in the County DA's office. She opened her own private practice in Frackville, specializing in criminal defense, family law and personal injury. Prior to being elected as District Attorney, Christine served as an Assistant County Solicitor for two years.

This important and informative breakfast program will be held from 8:00 am to 9:00 am on November 10, 2015, at the Tamaqua Arts Center. A continental breakfast will be provided. Chamber members as well as non-Chamber members are encouraged to attend. Reservations are required to attend.

For more information on the program and to register, contact the Chamber office at 570-668-1880. Reservations are requested for this event.

What is the Support Group?

The Group is for survivors and families or friends of neurologic diseases like Multiple Sclerosis, Parkinson's, or Stroke. The group meets regularly to socialize and learn to deal with problems related to the neurologic diseases. By emphasizing what can be done rather than what can't be done, the group may give new hope and insight to those involved.

Who can join?

The group is open to all survivors, family and friends, as well as other interested people.

What are the goals of the Support Group?

Education:

- ✓ Learn about stroke, its causes and effects
- ✓ Increase self-help, problem-solving and prevention measures
- ✓ Provide a resource group to new stroke victims and their families

Support:

- ✓ Provide encouragement regarding mutual problems and accomplishments
- ✓ Enhance individual dignity and self-worth

Socialization:

- ✓ Reduce feelings of isolation
- ✓ Integrate into social situations

Creative Manufacturing, Artist Open House to Feature World Renown Contemporary Artists

Free of charge and open to the public, the Oct. 24th open house will offer a rare glimpse inside the behemoth studio of noted contemporary New York painter Joseph Marioni. Marioni's work can be found in museums worldwide, including the Whitney Museum of Art, and the San Francisco Museum of Art. The artist utilizes his Tamaqua studio at 110 East Broad Street to create his large canvases.

A Creative Manufacturing/Artist Open House, hosted by the Tamaqua Area Community Partnership (TACP), will feature ten unique locations including artist live/work studios, creative manufacturing firms, community arts programs, and a 20 acre public garden on Saturday, October 24, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Free of charge and open to the public, the event will offer a rare glimpse inside the behemoth studio of internationally noted contemporary New York painter Joseph Marioni.

Marioni's work can be found in museums and public collections worldwide, including the Whitney Museum of Art, and the San Francisco Museum of Art. The artist utilizes his Tamaqua studio at 110 East Broad Street to create his often enormous monochromatic paintings, 12 of which will be on exhibit at the Philadelphia Art Museum, opening this November 13.

"We are looking forward to showcasing the unique creative firms and places Tamaqua has to offer only 100 miles from New York City," says Micah J. Gursky, Executive Director of the Tamaqua Area Community Partnership (TACP), tour sponsor. For more information about TACP, visit www.tacp.info or call 570-668-1192."

World portrait artist Stephen Bennett paints massive, brightly hued portraits of indigenous people and international world figures. His studio, a former church at 224 West Broad Street, will be open for the tour. McCoy Design, 108 East Broad Street, a manufacturer of stylish, original handcrafted crystal sculptures for the home, will open its doors. McCoy Designs, as seen in home design publications including the cover of Elle Décor, is retailed at high-end retailers such as Barney's and Neiman Marcus.

Also on tour: The former Scheid's Department Store, built in 1916 and located at 24 West Broad Street with 20,000 square feet of loft-like space, seven garages, and abundant northern light filled windows; Emma's Friends Soaps & Lotions, at 101 East Broad Street is a manufacturer and online retailer of fine handcrafted natural toiletries, lotions and soaps. The company was founded to assist physically challenged children and individuals; The Tamaqua Community Arts Center, 125 Pine Street; the Tamaqua Historical Society Museum, 114 W. Broad Street; and Tamaqua Artist in Residence Studio, located at 27 Center Street.

Stonehedge Gardens, located three miles south of Tamaqua, 51 Dairy Road, will be open through daylight hours. The garden features 20 acres of sustainable horticulture, nature trails, water gardens, fine art sculptures, and pond. For more info and location, visit www.stonehedgegarden.org.
